Xunantunich Maya Ruin “Stone Woman”

Believed to have been built sometime during A.D. 150 -900; the golden age of the Mayas. Xunantunich contains three ceremonial plazas surrounded by house mounds. It was first opened in 1938 after centuries of neglect. As the first Maya site to be opened in the country it has attracted the attention and exploration of many other archaeologists over the years. Located across from San Jose Succotz Village; eight miles from the western border, this site can only be reached by a hand-cranked ferry across the Mopan River.

Note: Xunantunich tour is combined with the Belize Zoo.

Hol Chan & Shark Ray Alley

Hol Chan Marine Reserve and Shark Ray Alley are approximately 4 miles south east of SunBreeze Hotel. It is the single most popular day trip from San Pedro, perfect for snorkeling. Hol Chan is Mayan for 'little channel.' The entire reserve focuses on a cut through the reef (called a quebrada) which is little more than 25 yards wide and 30 feet deep. Over 160 species of fish have been identified in the reserve, along with nearly 40 species of corals, 5 sponges, 8 algae's, 2 sea grasses, 3 marine mammals and 3 species of sea turtle. Annexed to Hol Chan is Shark Ray Alley. Nurse Sharks and Rays have a great tolerance for snorkelers and seem to enjoy the human interaction.

Mexico Rocks and Robles and Beach BBQ (speedboat)

Ambergris Caye is 27 miles long, and San Pedro is concentrated in only an 8 mile section. Robles is about 20 miles north of town. Your day to Robles begins as we make way north along the coast of Ambergris Caye. Your first stop is to snorkel at Mexico Rocks, with its coral formations and colorful small fish. Then we head on to Robles, where we will stop on a pristine stretch of beach where the reef almost touches the island. Here you can snorkel the reef or explore the deserted beaches in both directions. While you are snorkeling or exploring the expanses of beach, our guide prepares a delicious Beach BBQ for you. Lunch includes BBQ chicken, roasted potatoes, pasta salad and brownies. After lunch you will have time to relax in a hammock under the shade of a coconut tree or go for another swim. Then it will be time for us to begin our return journey along the coast back to San Pedro

Bacalar Chico

Bacalar Chico on the coast of northern Ambergris Caye covers 130 km² of the Belize Barrier Reef as well as Rocky and Robles Points – the only points where the barrier reef touches mainland Belize. After visiting this pristine Reserve, Bacalar Chico, you continue on to snorkel stops at Barracuda Reef and Rocky Point Channel. Then we head on to Robles Point, where we will stop on a pristine stretch of beach where the reef almost touches the island. Here you can snorkel the reef or explore the deserted beaches in both directions. While you are snorkeling or exploring the expanses of beach, our guide prepares a delicious Beach BBQ for you. Lunch includes BBQ chicken, roasted potatoes, pasta salad and brownies. To the Maya, Bacalar Chico was an important trading port and it is believed that some fifteen hundred years ago they dug a narrow channel separating Ambergris Caye from Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula. The Bacalar Chico channel functions as the park's northern boundary and narrowly separates Belize from Mexico.
